The complainant recently discovered that her brother has been stealing, forging and cashing checks that belong to her mother. The complainant has spoken to her mother, who declined to press any charges. The bank has been notified and the account closed. The complainant stated she felt threatened by her brother when she approached him on the theft. Report for documentation only, no further action taken.

12-861 11-05-12 A Windrush Lane resident came into BHPD to report a stolen handgun. The complainant advised that she recently moved from Ridgecroft Lane to Windrush Lane and when she looked for the handgun, it was gone. It is unknown if it was taken by her estranged husband or possibly one of the movers.

Investigations are following up. The handgun was entered into the LEADS system as stolen.

12-869 11-07-12 A Saville Row property owner advised that they had evicted tenants from their home at the end of October. When they returned from Florida, they discovered that many items had been removed. They suspect that the tenants removed the property. Detectives contacted the tenants, they denied removing the property. They indicated that the owner was renting the basement to someone else during the time they were there. Detectives also learned that the home was left unsecured for a week. They are not able to determine when the theft took place, or if anyone else entered the property. The case remains open, but inactive pending further leads.

12-885 11-14-12 A Church Road resident reported a theft of money from their home. The complainant stated that they had hired a cleaning service for the first time. No one else was in the home. When the complainant returned home, after the cleaning service left, she discovered money missing that she had hidden in the home. Detectives are in the process of interviewing the suspects in the case.
