

Bio for Heritage & Environs Committee Nomination July 23, 2015

Erin Vondra

Erin Vondra was raised in North Barrington and attended District 220 schools before graduating and attending The University of Arizona. While at university, she worked for the Chicago White Sox in marketing and PR, then continued her position after graduating in 2003. Erin was then recruited by a large corporate compliance company, CT Corporation, where she started as a team member assisting legal professionals, then as a manager of a large team facilitating compliance for mergers and acquisitions, and finally as a consultant for legal teams at large law firms and fortune 500 companies. Since leaving CT in 2008, Erin has been working as an IL licensed real estate broker in residential and industrial with WDH Real Estate. She also runs a lifestyle blog called Imperfect Polish and is married with two small children (Tommy 3, Mary 1).