BARRINGTON HILLS POLICE DEPARTMENT
Monthly Report
January 2008

Theft

08-082      01-02-08      An Algonquin River Road resident reported that while he was out of town, his sister had a party in his home and several items were stolen. The victim was advised to get a list together and forward it to the detective division.

DETECTIVE SUMMARY: Currently under investigation and awaiting a complete list of suspect information from the victim.

08-226      01-06-08      A Wagon Wheel Road resident reported items missing from his home. The victim stated that some high school students came into the house without his knowledge and took several items belonging to him. TOT Detectives for follow-up.

DETECTIVE SUMMARY: May be due to a civil conflict, under investigation.

08-280      01-08-08      A Bateman Road resident reported that several items were missing from his barn. He stated that the tenant had just moved out and he believed that he had taken the items. The officer contacted the tenant and determined that he had indeed taken the items, since he believed that he had paid for them. After speaking with his attorney, the tenant agreed to return many of the items. Since the items were returned, the complainant declined to press charges. No further action taken.

Burglary

08-316      01-09-08      A Healy Road resident reported that when she arrived home, she noticed that someone had broken into her home. The victim stated a small flat screen television and loose coin were taken. The officer observed that a patio brick was used to break a glass pane and unlock the door. The scene was turned over to detectives.

DETECTIVE SUMMARY: Evidence was collected at the scene and will be processed by the ISP Crime Lab. No offender / suspect information available.

Identity Theft / Forgery

08-344      01-10-08      A Buckley Road resident reported that she was contacted by her bank regarding suspicious activity on her account. The victim was advised there were several charges from stores in Maryland. The victim advised that the charges were not made by her. The account was closed and the bank is investigating further. The victim is not being held liable for the charges. No further action taken.

08-510 01-15-08 A Hawley Woods Road resident reported that she was contacted by her bank regarding two fake checks that were cashed on her account. The bank is handling the investigation; a report was made for documentation purposes only.

Damage to Property

08-351 01-10-08 The foreman for an Otis Road home under construction reported that someone drove through the wooden gate on the property. The extra watch was extended. No one was seen in the area. Case is inactive pending further leads.

08-974 01-28-08 A Comcast employee reported that he responded to Algonquin River Road for a reported cable outage. In checking the line, he observed what appeared to be a bullet hole through the cable. In checking with the residents in the area, some did report hearing gun shots immediately before the cable went out. All information was turned over to detectives for further investigation.

DETECTIVE SUMMARY: This is still under investigation. Detectives are following up on some leads.

Credit Card Fraud

08-857 01-24-08 A Westfield Way resident reported that someone had used his credit card to make a payment on a cellular phone account. The only information that the victim was able to obtain was the offender's first name and that he had said he was the step-son of the victim. All information was turned over to the detective division.

DETECTIVE SUMMARY: Detectives received a call from the Markham Police Department advising that they had a subject in custody for possession of cannabis. While inventorying his belongings they discovered several credit cards with different names as well as a list of names, social security numbers and dates of birth. Several of the names belonged to residents of Barrington Hills. The victim of the credit card fraud was one of the names. Detectives interviewed the subject and obtained a written statement. The subject was placed under arrest and taken for bond court. Further investigation will be completed in cooperation with the FBI.
