Monthly Report
April 2009

Domestic

- 09-2228 04-04-09 Officers responded to a Country Oaks Road residence for a reported father daughter domestic. Officers spoke with both subjects who stated the domestic was verbal in nature. The argument was over the son of the resident dating a friend of the daughter. The officer explained to the father that since his son is an adult, he can date whoever he chooses. The subjects agreed to stay apart and cool down. No further action taken.
- 09-2231 04-04-09 An Old Sutton Road resident came into BHPD to report a domestic situation with her husband. She stated they had an argument while driving. When they returned home, she stated he forcibly removed her from the vehicle and threw her to the ground. In speaking with the husband, he stated he did not throw her to the ground that she tripped over his leg while he was trying to restrain her from damaging his vehicle. Neither subject wanted to sign complaints. Both parties were issued domestic violence handbooks and the husband agreed to leave the home for the night. No further action taken.
- 09-2577 04-18-09 While conducting a premise check on Brinker Road, an officer was approached regarding a domestic situation. The subject stated that his wife was extremely intoxicated and was making verbal threats against her daughter at a family party. While speaking to the complainant, the victim approached the officers and stated the same thing. Officers responded to the residence to speak to the wife/offender. Officers observed that she was extremely intoxicated. She admitted to making the threats. The officers explained what the consequences of her actions could be. All parties were issued domestic violence handbooks. The offender said she would go to bed and there would not be any further problem. No further action taken.

Theft from Vehicle

- 09-2369 04-10-09 An Old Sutton Road resident reported that someone entered his vehicle while it was parked in his driveway and removed several items. No one was seen in the area.

Credit Card Fraud

- 09-2566 04-18-09 A Ridgcroft Lane resident reported that she had received a call from American Express regarding an unpaid balance. She stated that the credit card was hers from her form employer. She stated that she left the company a year ago and left the credit card behind. She stated that she did not make the charges and they should have been paid by the company. She just wanted to document the incident so she could be released from liability of the charges. No further action taken.
