Monthly Report
May 2009

Missing Person

09-2954 05-02-09 A Brinker Road resident reported that her nephew, who is staying with them, was missing and she believed that he was suicidal. The complainant advised that he has been under care for depression and he left a note implying that he would take his own life. The officer was able to contact the nephew's cellular phone carrier to get a location on his phone. The officer also contacted the bank to check debit card usage. He was able to determine that it had been used at a hotel in Chicago. Chicago Police checked the hotel. In checking his room, they located suicide notes, but he was not there. The subject finally answered his cellular phone and his doctor was able to convince him to return to an area hospital and be admitted for psychological evaluation.

Noise Complaints

09-2977 05-03-09 A Penny Road resident reported a repetitive problem with loud music in the area. The officer located the music coming from a residence on Pond Gate. The officers spoke with the subjects who were having band practice, and advised them that they would be cited if the loud music continued. They advised that the band would be relocating their practice location. No further action taken.

Damage to Property

09-3038 05-06-09 A realtor for a vacant home on Rolling Hills Drive reported that a window had been broken out of the home. The officer checked the interior along with the realtor. It did not appear that anything was missing or disturbed inside the home. The window was boarded up. No further action was taken.

09-3332 05-18-09 BHPD received a report of fresh graffiti on the Otis Road silo, as well as street signs in the area. An officer responded to photograph the damage and the Cook County graffiti removal unit was notified for clean-up.

Domestic Situation

09-3094 05-08-09 Officers responded to a Little Bend Road residence for a reported domestic. On arrival, officers were advised that it was verbal only. The wife advised that she has filed for divorce, but both parties are still living in the home. Both parties refused to leave the residence, but agreed to stay separated. They were both issued domestic violence handbooks. No further action taken.

The wife advised that she has filed for divorce, but both parties are still living in the home. Both parties refused to leave the residence, but agreed to stay separated. They were both issued domestic violence handbooks. No further action taken.

Burglary

09-3180 05-12-09 A Bateman Circle North resident reported that approximately $7000.00 in jewelry was taken from their home. The resident advised that sometime during the day while she was gone, someone entered through an unlocked garage door. Her husband reported he was working across the street and had been back to the house a few times. He did see a see a young adult on an ATV in the area and a suspicious vehicle that drove by several times. BHPD Detective as well as State Police Evidence Technician was called to the scene.

DETECTIVE SUMMARY: Detectives continue to investigate. They have spoken to the subjects on ATV's and ruled them out as suspects. A neighborhood canvass was conducted and local pawn shops continue to be checked to see if anything turns up there.

Theft

09-3305 05-18-09 An Old Dundee Road resident reported that $5000.00 was missing from their safe. The complainant believed that the theft occurred while he and his wife were out of town. The complainant further stated that he believed the offender may be his daughter's boyfriend, as he was there while his daughter was mowing the lawn. There was no evidence of forced entry. Investigation was turned over to Detectives.

DETECTIVE SUMMARY: Detectives met with the resident who stated that when his wife was getting ready to leave on a trip, she noticed that the money was missing from the safe. The complainant further stated that he does not have the combination, only his wife and daughter have it. After several attempts to contact the daughter to set up an interview, the complainant advised that his daughter was very upset over the accusations and his wife no longer wanted to pursue the investigation. The complainant came into BHPD to sign a termination of investigation request. No further action taken at this time.
