BARRINGTON HILLS POLICE DEPARTMENT
Monthly Report
November 2009

Damage to Property

- 09-7926 11-05-09 A resident came into BHPD to report that the day before, while driving on Route 62 at Old Sutton, she heard a loud noise hit the side of her vehicle. She didn't notice anything at the time, but after looking at it later, she and several of her family members believed that there were bullet holes in the side of her vehicle. A report was generated for insurance purposes. Due to the delayed reporting, no offenders were identified.
- 09-7983 11-07-09 A Bateman Circle resident reported that his home was damaged with paint balls. The home was placed on an extra watch.
- 09-8024 11-08-09 A Crawling Stone resident reported that sometime during the evening, the glass in his front door was broken. The complainant advised that his daughter had a recent altercation with a subject in Palatine in which the subject threatened to break out her windows. The complainant did not want BHPD to make contact with the suspect at this time; he just wanted the incident documented. An extra watch was placed on the residence.
- 09-8186 11-14-09 A Peraino Circle home contractor reported that someone broke the glass out of the front door. Entry was not gained. A report was generated for insurance purposes. The home was placed on an extra watch.
- 09-8328 11-19-09 A River Road resident reported hearing voices and then someone break the windows out of his vehicle while it was parked in his driveway. The complainant stated that his son has had some recent problems with some people at school. He thought it was possible that they might be involved. The area was searched with negative results.

Identity Theft

- 09-8005 11-08-09 A Country Oaks Lane resident reported that someone had attempted to open several credit cards using her residential information. The complainant was advised to contact all her banks and credit card companies. No further action was taken at this time.
- 09-8162 11-13-09 A Ridge Road resident reported that he had received a bill for the purchase of five cell phones and service. The complainant advised that he did contact the cellular company to advise them that he did not open the account. The phones were deactivated and the account closed. The victim wanted a report to document the incident to go along with a fraud alert under his name.

Theft

- 09-8130 11-12-09 A Middlebury Road resident reported that sometime during the previous week, someone had removed two trail cameras he had mounted in trees on his property. No one was seen in the area. The home was placed on an extra watch.

Burglary

09-8273 11-18-09 Officers responded to a reported burglary at a home under construction on Juliano Court. On arrival, the officer met with the contractor. He advised that four furnaces and three air conditioning units were removed from the residence. The subject stated that the units had been fully installed and operational for several months. In addition, all his tools were also missing. BHPD detectives, as well as the Illinois State Police Evidence Technician were contacted to respond to the scene.

DETECTIVE SUMMARY: Detectives continue to follow leads. Case is pending.

09-8339 11-20-09 A contractor for an Algonquin Road home under construction reported that the construction trailers and the pole barn, were broken into overnight. Several tools were missing. The investigation is pending a list of items missing from the victims.

Criminal Trespass to Vehicle

09-8275 11-18-09 A Berron Lane resident reported that sometime over night, his truck was taken and then returned. The complainant stated he had noticed it gone during the night when he took his dog out. He did not want to contact the police at that time and disturb his family, who were sleeping. In the morning, the truck was back in his driveway. Case was TOT detectives.

DETECTIVE SUMMARY: It was believed the truck was used in the neighboring burglary. Case is pending further information.
