Village of Barrington Hills
Attn: Robert Kosin
Director of Administration

Dear Robert,

With another summer upon us, we are planning our annual 5/10K Run for the Arts on Wednesday, July 4, 2012. I am writing to you today to seek permission to run part of our 10K through the Village of Barrington Hills as we have for over 15 years.

Each year our race brings 400-700 runners to the streets of Barrington as they begin their Independence Day celebration. Long on tradition, many community members of both the Villages of Barrington and Barrington Hills participate in this fun run. Our 10K runners love the challenge of running through the scenic hills of Brinker and Otis Road.

As in the past, the proceeds of our race benefit the cultural arts in the community. While Advocate Good Shepherd Hospital will assume the role of race Director, we would like your continued support by utilizing your staff of officers on race day for traffic control and safety. Our race begins at 7:30 am in downtown Barrington. Our entire event is finished in time for the parade that follows at 9:30.

I appreciate your consideration to our event. Please let me know if you need any additional information.

Yours Truly,
