FOREST PRESERVE DISTRICT of COOK COUNTY
Centennial Anniversary Launch

The Forest Preserve District of Cook County is celebrating a milestone! Please join us as we launch our Centennial Anniversary plans to educate and engage area residents for our next one hundred years of conserving and protecting this invaluable land.

Forest Preserve District of Cook County Board President Toni Preckwinkle and General Superintendent Arnold Randall will share their vision for the future of the forest preserves and important work the district is undertaking to plan for the next century.

The celebration will be hosted by Bill Kurtis and feature a keynote address by Audrey Peterman, an advocate for the outdoors and author of Our True Nature and Legacy on the Land: A Black Couple Discovers Our National Inheritance and Tells Why Every American Should Care. The discussion will focus on the topic of nature in a 21st century urban environment.
